

Greg McCormick

I am a lifelong Alaskan, born in Fairbanks and raised in a little community right outside of Fairbanks called North Pole. I have been joyously married for 28 years to my wife and love of my life Pellzitha. We have two children; Tialutrell 27 yrs and Lucrestusdante 21 yrs. In 2004 I retired from the Air National Guard as a Senior Non Commissioned Officer after 20 years of military service in Alaska. In June of 2005 I received a call from ChangePoint asking me consider becoming one of the pastors on staff. At the time I had been itching to leave Alaska in favor of a warmer climate, however, the Holy Spirit had other plans for me. I've been a pastor at ChangePoint for almost four years now and it's been a time of unprecedented spiritual growth for my family and me.

I am amazed that I am being steadily transformed into His image daily. And I am keenly aware that He is not finished with me yet.
